

Reservation Policy

What it means to reserve

- The price is guaranteed for 3 days from reservation (including the reservation date).
- Sign your contract within 3 days to guarantee the reservation price.

No obligation

- There's absolutely no obligation when making your reservation. We never ask for a credit card.
- Should you later decide you are not ready for storage, no further action is necessary.

What is needed to reserve

- The only information we ask for is your name, email address and telephone number.

Changes and cancellations

- If you want to change your unit size or move in date call 5 255 4764 or email on ehuet@bluebox.mu
- Or, cancel your reservation and start again when you're ready.
- Double Reservation on the same day will be cancel automatically
- Reservation cannot be done above one month

It's always in your control, and it's always free.

Your reservation confirmation and next steps

- After reserving your unit, you will receive an email confirming your reservation details.
- Your store manager will also call to confirm your reservation and answer any questions you may have.
- If you wish to proceed you will need to come to the store to sign your contract.